

MAKING RESEARCH MATTER IN THE NORTH EAST AND YORKSHIRE

Celebrating progress & planning ahead towards the Chief Nursing officers' Strategic Plan for Research

Join us on 13th March 2025 at Shine Leeds for an interactive regional event focused on the Chief Nursing Officer's Strategic Plan for Research.

Further details to follow*

- Find out about national and regional progress in relation to the plan
- Meet fellow colleagues across the region who are leading and or supporting the research capacity and capability building agenda
- Get practical support and information on the range of resources available to support you.
- Share posters and/or other initiatives related to the delivery of the plan happening in your organisation

Aimed at colleagues who are responsible for the professional research capacity and capability building agenda, or those whose role incorporates supporting/representing their chief nurse in relation to this work - delivering the CNO Strategic Plan for Research.
